

Get up and make it happen!

55th Annual
Florida Reading Association Conference

Save the Dates!
November 4 - 6, 2017
Tampa, Florida

Renaissance Tampa International Plaza Hotel

Attending the 55th Annual Florida Reading Association conference is a worthwhile, exciting, and effective way to network, renew, and develop professionally!

1. Meet people with similar interests and experiences who may help you expand your educational and professional network
2. Investigate new opportunities and experiences
3. Be challenged to consider new ideas and theories that can impact your own teaching
4. Be energized, inspired and encouraged
5. Have the opportunity to exhibit, demonstrate, or share your ideas for literacy instruction
6. Have an opportunity to build partnerships and relationships that will help you professionally
7. Be inspired to create something new for your own classroom
8. Receive answers to difficult or challenging questions that you have been considering
9. Find lots of practical information you can put to immediate use
10. Mingle with experts in the field.

Get up and make it happen!